Swarming Into French Centers Washington Sept. 2.—A published statement by Vice President Marshail declaring that President Wilson should run for reelection in 1916 and would be the unanimous choice of his party aroused wide interest in congressional circles today, but White House officials refused to make any comment. In democratic circles, however, it is taken for granted that the president will be a candidate, although it was stated

Reports reaching here from Parls and other places in France tell of the misery, particularly among the poorer classes, following in the train of the war. These came from American and French residents of Parls, Mrs. Herman H. Harjes, wife of the American banker in Parls, being among those who have drawn special attention to the urgent needs of the thousands of French and Belgian peasantry driven into Parls by the onrush of the contending forces.

An announcement will be made later of details of organization of the French fund which will be centralized and administered by the French embassy. SOME LONDON BANKERS

BUYING AMERICAN BILLS. Greater Ease Reported in the Lo Discount Situation.

New York, Sept. 2.—The most interesting development of today was the greater ease reported in the London discount situation. Despite the extension of the British moratorium, some London bankers were reported to be buying American bills, of which the supply was small, however, because of the supposed completion of purchases in connection with initial New York city payments at London and Paris.

Exchange was a trifle easier, both cables and demand being from 1-4 to 1-2 cent under pesterday's highest rates. These slight declines were ascribed to the passing of Sept. I maturities. Sight drafts on Paris were a fraction above yesterday, but again a fraction above yesterday, but again the quotation was without actual sig-
